This Amendment revises the BAA as stated below:

This amendment revises the BAA to: 1) include the Technical Evaluation Criteria; 2) include the "Title Page" attachment referenced on page 9; and 3) revise page 12, Section One-Budget Proposal, item b.3.; and 4) revise page 1 to extend the deadline for receipt of proposals from March 6, 2006 to March 20, 2006; and 5) provide a due date (March 1, 2006) for all questions related to this BAA.

Please note: The actual BAA document has been revised from its original release version to incorporate all of these referenced changes.

The above referenced revisions are fully described below:

1) The Technical Evaluation Criteria was listed in the original BAA, however the link was inactive and the attached document could not be found. Page 2 of the BAA has been revised to activate the link and provide the attached document.

2) On page 9 of the BAA, under Proposal Format, there is mention of a "Title Page" that is included as an attachment. The original BAA did not contain the actual attachment. Therefore, the BAA is revised to include this attachment on both page 2 (under Additional Documents and Forms in this BAA) and on page 9 (under under Proposal Format, Title Page).

3) On page 12 of the BAA, under Section One - Budget Proposal, item b.3. is revised to read as follows:

In preparing the proposal, offerors should include costs for attendance at one programmatic meeting per year. For the purposes of estimating costs, offerors should assume one three-day meeting will be conducted at/near Washington, D.C., with attendance by the Principal Investigator and one Senior Investigator.

4) Page 1 of the BAA has been revised to change the Due Date (for proposals) from March 6, 2006 to March 20, 2006 by 2:00pm (Local Time).

5) Page 1 of the BAA has been revised to include the following statement: All questions related to this BAA must be received by March 1, 2006, via electronic mail (email) to the Contract Specialist, John R. Manouelian, at the following email address: manouelj@mail.nih.gov
